Here are some great books that Kurt recommends:

New Believer's Bible. It's in an easy to read format (NLT) and includes notes and an in-depth study guide by Pastor Greg Laurie. I also really like the King James and the New King James versions of the Bible. Remember: The Bible is the most important book in your library. Read and apply it daily! If other authors or speakers say something contrary to what the Bible says, reject what they say and stick with the Word of God.

How to Pray. Book by R.A. Torrey.

Breakthrough Prayer by Jim Cymbala. "Prayer is the opening of the heart so we can receive all these good things that God has for us every day. It's like sitting down at a table that God has prepared for us. He says, 'I have everything you need today - all the grace, all the wisdom, all the provision that you need - but sit down at the table and eat. Don't be so rushed and so busy and try to live without My supply.' ...The Bible says if we ask anything according to His will, we know the Lord will hear us. So one of the things we have to check on is, are we praying in the spirit and the will of God as revealed in Scriptures? To go and pray, 'My boss insulted me yesterday. God, I pray that he comes down with a disease,' or something like that, this is not a thing to be praying about. We're to pray according to God's will. Then when we pray according to God's will, we don't have to be wondering, 'I wonder if God will hear this? I wonder if He's in sympathy with what I'm asking?' We are to pray according to God's will as revealed in Scripture." J. Cymbala
